-----Obituary-----

Spirit of Jefferson, Tuesday, December 10, 1867, Vol.20, No.15, Pg.3, Col.1

Mr. James Roper, an aged resident of this county, died at his home place about one and a half miles south of this town, on Saturday evening last. He was the largest landed proprietor, and doubtless the wealthiest man in the county, his broad acres extending over a great portion of the Southern section of the county. With him, for many years, the accumulation of landed property has amounted almost to a mania, and his long life has been spent in gathering together acre after acre until at the time of his death, his possessions covered a greater area than those of any one in the county. His success is an exemplification of what energy and economy will accomplish, but whether his great possessions were enjoyed by him here, or will avail him in that country "from whose bourn no traveller returns" are questions not for our consideration. His age was nearly 86.

The Virginia Free Press, Charlestown, Thursday, December 12, 1867, Vol.3, No.17, Pg.3 Col.2

On the 8th instant near Charlestown, James Roper, aged 84 years, 6 months and 27 days.
 "So live, that when thy summons comes to join Th' innumerable caravan that moves to that mysterious realm,
 Where each must take his chamber in the silent halls of death.
 Thou go, not like the quarry slave at night, scourged to his dungeon,
 But sustained and soothed by an unfa'ring trust approach thy grave
 Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him
 And lies down to pleasant dreams."

Mr. R., at the time of the accident, was attempting to mount his horse, when the animal fell and throwing Mr. Roper to the ground, dislocated his left thigh. Drs. James M. Roper

Mr. James M. Roper, a well-known citizen of this county residing near Charles Town, died yesterday afternoon in the 63d year year(sic) of his age. Mr. Roper had, some thirty years ago, received an injury to one of his legs by a horse falling upon it, and this limb had given him more or less trouble ever since. Finally last week he complained very much after being in town on Tuesday, and on Saturday was taken to his bed, gangrene having set in. Amputation was suggested, but this he would not agree to until yesterday. Drs. Miller, t Pitman and Venning therefore assembled at the home to perform the operation, and chlorotorm was being administered preparatory thereto when Mr. Roper suddenly expired. The deceased leaves four sos and one daughter---- Messrs. Jame T., Nicholas O., Franklin G. and Harry L. Roper, and Mrs. Joseph Glassford; also two brothers and two sisters----- messrs. W.H.H. and Wm. A. Roper of this county, Mrs. Shultz of Brunswick, and Mrs. Cooper of Baltimore. Funeral services will be held at his late residence at 3 p.m. today. Interment in Edge Hill Cemetery.

Several weeks ago Mr. Roper, whilst sitting on his porch with a friend, selected and named his own pallbearers friends and neighbors, whom he wished to lay him in his last resting place, viz: Messrs. B.F. Ramey, C.C. Conklyn, C.W. Conrad, John L. Burns, John T. Colston, Geo. F. Walker, Charles Chamblin and Levi M. Porter. The names of these persons he left in the hands of his friend Fayette B. Souders, with the request that he attend to seeing the gentlemen at the proper time, saying "It will not be long", though at the time he was in his usual good health.
